Q. What do dragons eat at Chinese New Year?

A. Firecrackers

We have been celebrating Chinese New Year in Kestrels this week. The children have made lots of wonderful tiger and dragon masks which they decorated and coloured in. There have been some great puppet dragons made with red card and lollipop sticks. The children enjoyed making Chinese lanterns and colouring in rabbits (year of the rabbit). On Wednesday the children decorated a biscuit using red icing and gold sprinkles which went down a treat. Also, we have had some very tasty snacks which include crispy chicken with sweet and sour sauce and rice. Spring rolls, noodles and prawn crackers.
